

TESSELATIONS

The Translation Technique used by M.C. Escher to make tessellations.

This technique involves redrawing a side of a shape and then translating a copy of the new side to every instance of the original side.

